GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. (KKCO)- 11 News Reporter Aaron Luna was a good sport Thursday at a charity event as he let people smash eggs on his head.

For the 3rd year, American National Bank held their 'Smash an Egg' for March of Dimes event.

Local leaders took their turns to let the community cover them in yolk to help save babies.

Aaron says he lost count after five eggs being cracked on his head, but he's happy he did it for such a good cause.

Organizers say they raised more than $2,000 at the event.
